

Post Doc Position – Pharmacoepidemiology of atrial fibrillation

A postdoc position will be available in the fall of 2009 to work on Pharmacoepidemiology of atrial fibrillation, The stipend is that of CIHR level

- The work consists of analyzing and integrating data and developing new sections of the database.
- A PhD with knowledge of pharmacoepidemiology and atrial fibrillation is highly desired.
- A strong written knowledge of English is required
- Supervisor: Louise Pilote
- Please submit a cover letter and CV to: louise.pilote@mcgill.ca